Black PR Wire Celebrates Dads and Grads

June is a special month. It is the month that Black PR Wire salutes and celebrates Dads and Grads!

Father's Day, June 21st, is a special time to honor the father figures in our lives. It is the time to shower them with our love, appreciation and gratitude. Be sure to pick out a special gift and prepare their favorite meal to give their spirits a lift. Black PR Wire wishes all Dads a happy Father's Day!

Graduation Day is a day to help high school and college students celebrate the newfound education and prepare to embark on their future career journey. Black PR Wire joins the many celebrities who have offered viral words of encouragement and well wishes. Congratulations, students!

POWER PROFILER: JAY Z

and Original Flavor (“Can I Get Open”), and later scored an underground hit single with 1995’s “In My Lifetime.” Drawing on Jaz’s dealings with mercenary labels, Jay-Z set up his own Roc-A-Fella imprint in 1996 with entrepreneur Damon Dash and Kareem “Biggs” Burke. His debut set, “Reasonable Doubt”, which reached US number 23 in July, attracted fans with a mixture of hard-hitting street lyrics and rhymes, epitomized by the collaboration with The Notorious B.I.G. on “Brooklyn’s Finest.” The follow-up, “In My Lifetime, Vol. 1”, was released in the aftermath of The Notorious B.I.G.’s murder, and debuted at US number 3 in November 1997. Featuring guest appearances from Sean “Diddy” Combs (aka “Puff Daddy”), Lil’ Kim, Too $hort, Blackstreet and DJ Premier, this sombre and intensely personal album included the stand-out tracks, “You Must Love Me” and “Where I’m From.”

Jay-Z (Shawn Corey Carter) was born in Brooklyn, New York City. Jay-Z was a school friend of The Notorious B.I.G. He first started releasing records in the late 1980s. In 1990, he appeared on records by his close friend, Jaz (“The Originators”)

Healthy & Safety Tips for COVID-19

COVID-19 has changed our daily routine! Here are some healthy and safety COVID-19 tips to help you get a grip:

Remember to practice social distancing. If you are around other people, make sure that there is at least 6 feet between you, when possible.

Avoid hugs, handshakes, large gatherings and close quarters.

Cover your mouth and nose with a cloth face cover when around others and out in public, such as the grocery store.

Wash hands often with soap and water – 20 seconds or longer (or use alcohol-based hand sanitizer with at least 60% alcohol).
